

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

Guarding against monopolization of the media is a crucial role of the government, not some outdated frivolity. I urge you not to loosen these rules further.